Class Matter, Under Act of Congress, of March 3, 1879.

ARTHUR BROWN IS NOMINATED FOR SHERIFF ON FIRST BALLOT

He Beats Clarence Crabbe Out by Ten Votes in Oahu Convention and There are Nine Blank Ballots Cast—The Ticket.

It was much closer to eight than to 7:30 last night when Chairman Robertson of the Territorial Committee stepped upon the stage at Progress Hall and called the Republican Convention for the County of Oahu to order.

The hall was crowded with delegates and spectators, but there was a noticeable absence of decorations. Maybe that was atoned for, however, by the enthusiasm.

The delegates were seated, the Fifth District men on the Waikiki and the Fourth District men on the Ewa side of the hall. The several precincts were marked by small squares of cardboard, properly numbered, raised over each group of chairs on slender poles.

"I take it," said Chairman Robertson, rapping to call the convention to order, "that it will not be necessary to read the call for this convention. The Secretary of the Committee will now read the temporary roll of the convention."

Secretary Harry Murray took up the roll and proceeded to read, those having proxies being requested to hand them in as the names were reached. The first name read was that of A. M. Brown, but there was no sound to break the monotony of the reading until Murray read the name of Clarence Crabbe. Then there was something of an outbreak of cheering and hand-clapping.

Chairman Robertson then called for nominations for temporary chairman, and John Cathcart nominated W. W. Harris. On motion of Charles Clarke the nominations were closed, and the chair declared W. W. Harris duly elected.

"I think you for the honor you have conferred upon me, gentlemen," said Mr. Harris. "Mr. Murray, I presume, will continue to act as secretary, and the chair will appoint Hon. Mr. Coelho of Maui to act as temporary interpreter."

"The next order of business is the appointment of the following committee: On Credentials—Andrew Cox, E. A. McKeague, A. S. Kaleiupu, T. P. Cummings, W. I. Emory, Chas. Hustace, Jr., J. Monn.

"On Rules and Organization—Andrew Adams, N. Fernandez, John Bell, George F. Renton, C. H. Clarke, J. Kupihea, George Smithies, J. W. Cathcart, G. P. Wilder, C. K. Quinn, R. N. Boyd.

"On Resolutions—A. F. Judd, C. J. Holt, J. J. Fern, C. H. Cooke, A. D. Castro, W. F. Drake, J. J. Belser."

The convention then took a recess to await the reports of the committees. There was a longer recess than had been anticipated, and presently it began to be rumored about the hall that there was a protest against the seating of the delegation from the Sixth of the Fourth District.

If there was a protest it came to nothing, because the roll of delegates returned was the same that had already been read. The report of the committee was adopted.

The committee on rules and permanent organization reported as follows:

REPORT ON RULES.
To the chairman and members of the county convention of the county of Oahu.

Gentlemen: Your committee on rules and permanent organization beg leave to report, recommending the following rules, for the adoption of this convention.

1. The permanent officers of this convention shall be a Chairman, Vice Chairman, Secretary, Treasurer and Sergeant-at-Arms.

2. The order of business shall be as follows:

A.—Call of permanent roll.
B.—Election of permanent officers.
C.—Report of Committee on Resolutions.

D.—Nominations for County officers in the following order: Sheriff, County Clerk, Auditor, County Attorney, Treasurer, Supervisor-at-Large.

E.—Immediately after the nomination of candidates for said officers, a recess shall be taken and the respective delegations from the several districts shall retire and nominate candidates for members of the Board of Supervisors and Deputy Sheriffs.

F.—Upon the reconvening of the convention, such nominations shall be announced to the convention by the chairman of the respective delegations. And upon the failure of any delegation to agree upon a nominee for any such office within a reasonable time, the convention shall proceed to make the nomination.

G.—Election of County Committee. Each precinct shall announce its choice for committeeman agreeably to Section 1, Article 1A, of the rules of the Republican party.

H.—Any other business that may be brought before the convention.

I.—Adjournment.

3. In making nominations for office the voting shall in all cases where there is more than one nominee be by ballot upon the call of the roll.

4. In order to secure the nomination for any office the candidate must receive a majority of all the votes cast.

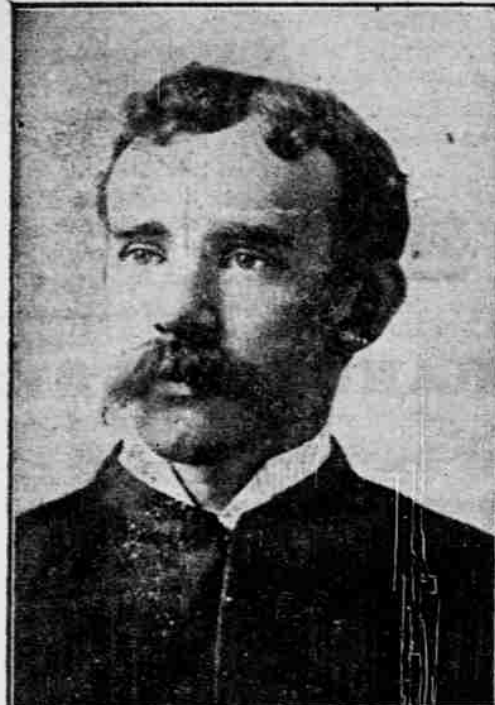

5. No one duly nominated for nomination for office shall be compelled to withdraw his name from consideration.

6. If, after three ballots shall have been taken, without securing a nomination any delegate may vote for any eligible person notwithstanding the nominations shall have been closed.

7. Every candidate for nomination for a county office shall before the balloting begins openly pledge himself before the convention to accept and abide by the result of the ballot.

8. A majority of the membership of the convention shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of the business of the convention.

9. These rules may be suspended by

ARTHUR M. BROWN,
Republican Nominee for Sheriff.

S. M. Kananul was nominated for sergeant-at-arms.

The report of the committee on resolutions was presented, as follows:

TWO THOUSAND JAPS ARE STRIKING ON MAUI

Riotous Laborers Smash Windows in Pioneers Mill—Militia From Wailuku Hold Fort, Wailuku Strike.

Nearly two thousand Japanese laborers are on strike at Maui plantations. All the Japanese at Wailuku went out, one week ago last night and those on the Pioneer Mill Company's plantation at Lahaina went out Friday night. Things have been very quiet at Wailuku but there was considerable violence at Lahaina, the riotous strikers stoning the windows of the big Pioneer mill and resisting the efforts of the mounted police to disperse them. Yesterday morning a small body of troops arrived from Wailuku and camped in the streets of Lahaina. Since that time there has been no trouble, although it is feared that there may be an outbreak at any time. The men at Lahaina are being paid off as rapidly as possible.

The first news of the strike was received in this city in the shape of a wireless telegram from Plantation Manager Baldwin to High Sheriff Henry stating that 1400 Japanese were on strike at Lahaina and asking advice. The High Sheriff at once sent a message authorizing all the forces necessary to be called out. He suggested that citizens be sworn in as special deputies if necessary and said that if that were not enough, reinforcements would be sent from Honolulu. Colonel Jones of the First Regiment, N. G. H., also received a message from Baldwin and ordered Co. "I," Captain Wm. Bal, commanding, to proceed at once from Wailuku to Lahaina to protect property. These messages from Manager Baldwin were sent at about 11 a. m. and since that time no further news has been received.

Passengers on the Wilder liner Kinau which left Lahaina shortly before 11 o'clock yesterday morning bring further details concerning the beginning of the present trouble. From the decks of the Kinau, lying out in the bay, the militiamen could be seen encamped in the streets of the ancient capital town. Crowds of Japanese could be seen but things seemed to be very quiet. Several of the passengers who went ashore report that there were about fifteen militiamen in sight and the only thing they seemed to be doing was time. They seemed to take the expedition in the light of a joke and picnic, although if the Japs get rioting again they may take it as something more serious.

George H. Robertson of C. Brewer & Co., returned on the Kinau from a trip to Wailuku and gave the following story of events last night:

"A week ago tonight all the laborers on Wailuku plantation went out. They presented a long list of silly and unreasonable demands which were refused by the company. Among other things they demanded an increase of pay far beyond the increase already promised to them this month. The manager gave them to understand that he did not propose to grant any such unreasonable demands. There has been no trouble, however. Notwithstanding the universal walkout at Wailuku the plantation has been able to run its mill in the day time all the past week. It is uncertain whether they will be able to go so the coming week or not.

"As to the strike at Lahaina I can only tell what I heard there. I understand that all the Japs at the Kaanapali camp of the Pioneer Mill Co. went on a strike last night (Friday). They objected to the luna and also presented a long string of unreasonable demands. The company brought them into Lahaina on a cane train and announced that they would pay them off. They began paying them before we left. Last night they stoned the mill, breaking all the windows. The mounted police charged them, attempting to disperse the mob but were unable to do anything. At 5 o'clock this morning a detachment of fifteen or twenty militia came over from Wailuku and were posted around town. All the other Japanese on the Pioneer plantation are out on a sympathetic strike. There was no violence when we left."

POWER OF POBEDONOSTSEFF CRUSHED BY A UKASE

ST. PETERSBURG, May 21.—That the power of Pobedonostseff has been shattered is evidenced by the ukase granting religious freedom. The aged procurator says that the Government has gone mad. He blames the weakness of the Czar.

POBEDONOSTSEFF, THE FALLEN RUSSIAN STATESMAN.

Pobedonostseff is the ablest of the Russian reactionists who, as Procurator of the Holy Synod, holds a similar position in the church to that of the grand inquisitor of mediaeval Spain. His influence, for many years, has kept the Greek Church closed to liberal influences. Pobedonostseff is credited with having dissuaded the present Czar's father, Alexander III, from carrying out the reforms begun by Alexander II, the victim of a Nihilist bomb. A single speech made at the imperial council upset the plans of the enlightened statesmen of Russia and made the Procurator of the Holy Synod the first civil subject of the Czar.
